General Charles P. Cabell
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2450 E. Street
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General Cabell:

General Bob Smith recommended that we contact you with regard to the Aspen Executives' Program. The Institute is very pleased to invite you and Mrs. Cabell to be its guests for one of our two-week sessions this summer. We are enclosing a brochure describing our program and also a leaflet giving the dates of the sessions.

Our objective has been to provide a forum where leaders from business can join with top men from other vital fields in an attractive and secluded environment to examine the philosophical roots of democracy and the capitalist economy in such a way as to understand where we are today and where we may go tomorrow. In these uneasy days we have felt that none of us can any longer afford facile slogans or pat solutions to dynamic national and international problems. The leaders of the country must be more than mere leaders: they must to some extent become philosophers and statesmen.

A list of those planning to take part this summer as special guests and moderators includes: Jacques Barzun, Dean Graduate Facilities, Columbia University; Sterling McMurrin, Dean, University College, University of Utah; Reuel Denney, Professor of Sociology, University of Chicago; Nelson Cruikshank, Director Social Security, A.F.L.-C.I.O.; James Tuck, Director, "Project Sherwood", Los Alamos Laboratory; Victor Reuther, Administrative Assistant to the President, U.A.W.; and Robert Morison, Director, Natural and Medical Sciences, Rockefeller Foundation.

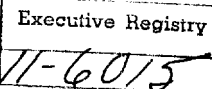

We do hope you will be able to join us for one of the sessions. The Institute of course will be happy to pay transportation, room and board for you and Mrs. Cabell during your stay.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Craig
Assistant to the President

Dear Allen:

Don't think I have forgotten you and my article for Studies in Intelligence.

Like Samson and the Lion, I have been wrestling mightily.

I am now up to the fourth draft, and hope to send it on to you in final shape by mid-July.

Sincerely yours

Robert Cutler
